CELEBRATION OF PRIESTHOOD - Friday 8th June at 11.30am

Dear Priests and people, may the beauty of this day, consecrated to the Heart of Jesus, make the desire for holiness grow in us. The Church and the world need holy Priests! Pope Francis, in the new Apostolic Exhortation on Holiness, Gaudete et Exsultate, has recalled for us the memory of priests who were passionate about communicating the Gospel, reminding us that “the Church does not need bureaucrats and functionaries, but instead passionate missionaries, consumed by their enthusiasm to communicate the true life.

The saints surprise us, confound us, because by their lives they call us to abandon a dull and dreary mediocrity” (GE, No. 138). We will need to accomplish, first of all, interiorly, this path of transfiguration: to go up to the Mountain and to let ourselves be transformed by the Lord, and then to become a light for the world and for the people entrusted to us.

May Mary, Most Holy, Mother of Priests, Woman of Life-giving Light, accompany and protect you always.

You are welcome to attend and pray the Mass for the Celebration of Priesthood, celebrating our thirteen Jubilarians, it will take place at the Cathedral on Friday 8th June at 11.30am.

APOLOGIES - ELECTRONIC VERSION OF PARISH NEWSLETTER

A significant number of people (possibly 21) did not receive their e-version of the parish newsletter last week. This was despite several attempts to send it to you both from the parish email address and my own personal email account. This is NOT CONNECTED to the recent Data Protection Protocol changes. My apologies for this. Hopefully normal service will be restored this week.

Prayer

*Help me in my unbelief.
Help my heart to accept what my mind cannot understand.
May my faith be as trusting as a bird on the wind,
as simple as the beauty of a clear summer sky.
May I sense the power of creation,
embrace the sacrifice of love,
and experience your healing in my life.

God, thank you for hearing my prayer.*
