PARISH NEWSLETTER

Please submit notices (by Wednesday 8pm) - to Fr Larkin by email at pp.thegoodshepherd@dioceseofleeds.org.uk

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER This time last year we saw our churches closing as the country went into a complete lockdown at the start of the pandemic. This year we will again be in lockdown but at least our church has been open for many months, even if at limited capacity, for this, we must be grateful to all those who have volunteered to help with the stewarding.

So as Easter approaches we are doing things a little differently this year.

We will celebrate GOOD FRIDAY 9.30am (BOOK ONLINE) with the reading of the Passion and Holy Communion.

We celebrate HOLY MASS ON EASTER SUNDAY 9.30am. (BOOK ONLINE)

(Both occasions are book online only PLEASE VISIT THE PARISH WEBSITE)

Palm Sunday – 09.30am (BOOK ONLINE)

The shorter form of the Passion from the Gospel of St Mark should be read in a dignified yet expeditious manner. The blessed palm branches should be distributed to the faithful as they leave the church after Mass. Those distributing the palm branches should wear single-use gloves when doing so.

Good Friday – 09.30am (BOOK ONLINE)

The Celebration of the Passion of the Lord should take place in the church with a congregation wherever possible. The proclamation of the Passion according to St John should be read in a dignified yet expeditious manner. For The Adoration of the Holy Cross, this may be expressed by the faithful through, a gesture such as a bow. Holy Communion should be given from the Reserved Sacrament according the previous Guidance offered.

Mass of Easter Day – 09.30am (BOOK ONLINE)

All priests should endeavour to celebrate Mass for their people on Easter Sunday. The Mass should be as prescribed in the Roman Missal but without the sprinkling of water as part of the Renewal of Baptismal Promises.

EASTER FLOWERS There will be a donation box in the church entrance on days when Mass is taking place. Please place your donation into the box marked “Flowers” If you would like to contribute for one week’s flowers for church, contact Doris Moorhead 01422 842931

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING I have been contacted about Diocesan safeguarding training for 2021. The framework for the safeguarding training is determined nationally and usually has to be undertaken face to face for a prescribed amount of time. However logistically this is problematic given Covid19 and all the associated challenges. As a first step all clergy who are undertaking ministry or likely to undertake ministry in the next 12 months must complete the mandatory safeguarding training online.

The Educare module is 'Safeguarding Adults' and should be completed by 30 April 2021. Educare suggest this this module takes approximately 2 hours to complete and relates to:

- Identifying 'adults at risk' and the key principles of the Care Act 2014
- Recognising Adult Abuse
- Reporting Adult Abuse
- Good Practice guidelines

This is very relevant to ministry and increasing our confidence to offer support and/or intervene when needed. All training successfully completed, Safeguarding Adults - Level 2, date: 16 March 2021, CPD Credits: 4

FIELD NOTES The hour has come!

“He was oppressed and was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth.

Like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth” (Is 53:7).

For the Christian faithful, this Isaiah text evokes a response deep within us, seeing how they apply to God’s only beloved Son, and how he died for all of us. In the words of St Peter, “without having seen him you have come to believe in him, and so you are filled already with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described”. Without this sincere love of Christ, we are no true followers of his. We cannot say we fully love him, until we appreciate what he suffered for us.

Today, having read the Passion narrative it is well to bear in mind that Christ was no stranger to hardship, privation and suffering, long before that final day of his life. “Being in the form of God,” as St Paul says, from the moment he came on earth, Jesus emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, becoming as human beings are (Phil 2:6f).

He endured hunger and thirst, and after long days surrounded by crowds seeking a cure, he often spent whole nights at prayer in the hills. Despite his compassion for all who came to him, he met with hatred and rejection, in particular from Pharisees and priests, who planned to have him killed. How this rejection and hatred must have grieved him. King Lear knew “How sharper than a serpent’s tooth it is, to have a thankless child;” and how must Jesus have felt at being rejected by the people he had chosen, above all others.

The passion of Christ invites us to identify with those who saw Jesus with the eyes of faith and love, who recognized the light of God in the darkness of Jesus’ passion and death. When we look upon the passion and death of Jesus with such eyes, we see a divine love that is stronger than sin,
a divine light that shines in all our darkness,
a divine power that brings new life out of death,
a divine poverty that enriches us at the deepest level of our being.

We have heard the story of Jesus’ last journey told in the space of a few minutes. This Holy Week, the church invites us to travel that journey at a much slower pace, day by day as it were. We look beneath the surface of what is happening, we listen deeply to all that is taking place, so as to recognise the good Shepherd who laid down his life for us all, so that we might have life and have it to the full.
