FIELD NOTES

Today we celebrate the special place that Mary has in the life of the Church. As soon as Mary's body was laid in the grave, it immediately escaped from its earthly darkness and ascended "body and soul" into "heaven". By using the image "assumed body and soul into heaven" what is being said is that Mary, because of the dignity of her motherhood and her own personal submission to God's will at every stage of her life, takes precedence over everyone in the sharing of God's glory which is the destiny of all of us who die united with Christ her Son.

Today's Gospel is the story of Mary's visitation to her cousin, Elizabeth, when both were expecting their first child. It is highly significant that it is Mary and Jesus who go to visit Elizabeth and John. Already in the womb, Jesus is showing that urge to serve rather than be served. Mary, too, shares that longing. And, at the presence of Jesus and his mother, the child in Elizabeth's womb jumps for joy. Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, excitedly bursts out into praise. She recognises the special position of Mary and her Son: "Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb." Mary is indeed unique and blessed in being chosen to be the mother of our saving King and Lord. Elizabeth is deeply moved that it is Jesus and his Mother that come to her and John: "And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me?" And yet that is what is happening to each of us all the time, and especially in every celebration of the Holy Mass when the Lord comes to us in his Word and in the most Holy Eucharist.

And there is a special word of praise for Mary also: "Blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfilment of what was spoken to her by the Lord." This brings us to her faith and total trust in God. That was expressed in her fiat ('Let it be done to me...'), when, even though not fully understanding what was being asked of her, she unconditionally accepted to submit to God's plan.

It is now Mary's turn to sing God's praises in the lovely song we called the Magnificat, which the Church sings at its evening prayer every day. It is full of reflections on what makes Mary great in the eyes of God. "He has looked with favour on the lowliness of his servant." Mary was a simple unmarried girl living in obscurity in a small town in an out of the way Roman province. "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" Nathanael asked rather cynically when told where Jesus came from. Actually, yes.

Mary expresses this in the last part of her song:

"He has shown strength with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
and lifted up the lowly;
he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty."

We ask Mary to remember us as we continue our journey on earth and to intercede for us with her Son that we may remain faithful to our call as faithful disciples.
