MUSIC FOR AUGUST There will be an 'interregnum' during August due to the circumstances we find ourselves in, commencing again in September. We still need more people willing to lead music at Mass, please consider this invitation, contact Paul Newman.

THE LUNCHEON CLUB has now closed for the summer break and will reopen on Wednesday 24 August. Many thanks to all our guests whose company we've enjoyed since restarting in February and thanks to all cooks and helpers who have made re-opening possible. Wishing everyone a restful and healthy summer.

ROE v WADE DECISION As you have seen in the media, the US Supreme Court struck down the Roe v Wade decision, returning the matter of abortion legislation to individual states. Lord Alton has published an excellent piece with key facts on the decision:

FOR CATHOLICS IN HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE the Anscombe Bioethics Centre is an organisation which does research on behalf of our Bishops and education for the Catholic community on moral matters in medicine. They have a new website which has resources which will benefit parishioners who are doctors, nurses, or others who work or study in fields related to health and social care.: www.bioethics.org.uk

FATHER JOHN We are organising a memorial stone to be sited at the front of the church alongside Fr Peter and Nigel, this may take some time. Also, Sean has sourced a gingko peace tree that has seeded from one in Hiroshima, a student in Norwich has done a lovely film, which is really worth watching. It shows what plans they have with planting the trees. The link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DH47LwySX0Q>

NEWS FROM THE ORCHARD It looks as if this might be the Year of the Apple! All four trees have a sizeable crop at present. The two plum trees are growing well, although they have few plums. Last week I gathered a modest but promising crop of blackcurrants which is now in our freezer awaiting instructions from the luncheon club cooks. A request to gardeners who use the wheelbarrow: please leave it outside, and not in the lock-up as the door is too heavy for many of us to open. Anyone who would like to be involved in helping to maintain the orchard contact Peggy Thomas on 01422 646 744.
