LAUDATO SI Pope Francis implores everyone to work together to create a better world for future generation. This is Cafod's Laudato Si week - which we can find at #LaudatoSiWeek or laudatosiactionplatform.org - which has many suggestions for directions and actions to take when we hear the cry of the Earth and the cry of the poor.

For example: –

- Almost half of the earth's animal species are currently declining, according to research led by Queen's University Belfast.
- Our overheating world is likely to break a key temperature limit for the first time over the next few years, scientists predict.
- Record-breaking heatwaves, devastating floods in Pakistan, and drought in East Africa - and that is just this year.
- It is no surprise that climate anxiety is rising, particularly among young people, who have mostly only known a world affected by climate change.

There is a lot of work to be done, and the Good Shepherd Laudato Si group hopes to make a start by visiting the Salford Diocese Laudato Si Centre on Saturday 24th June. A 16-seater minibus will leave here at 10am for a two-hour visit (11.00 - 1.00) and return to the parish. But it will not be 'first come, first served'. We need to include younger parishioners (bringing a parent if needed) so that their voices can be heard and their perspective included in future discussions of how to live as brothers and sisters, harming no-one (Laudato Si).

If you are interested, contact John Duffy 01484 534750, duffyhudds@mac.com, or speak to John or Sean after Mass
